

Hornet's Daughter

Hornet's Daughter is an alternative singer-songwriter with a passion for storytelling and connecting with others through music. She performs regularly at open mics, community events, and festivals. Whether it be for a handful of people or an audience of thousands, Hornet's Daughter brings an eclectic mix of heartfelt folk ballads to high energy tracks.

With mentorship and hard work Hornet's Daughter has written, performed and produced countless releases and was awarded a student Emmy for her song "Stepdad"'s music video. Hornet's Daughter is grateful for all of those who support her and continue to show up and share in the joy of music with her.
